Unless the Lord builds the house, its builders labor in vain. - Psalm 127:1

I was reading a daily email devotional by Os Hillman and Psalm 127:1 was featured. I read the passage and devotional and it struck a chord on something that I have been praying over for the community. Now, since I believe in God moments and that He will speak through His word, I feel that this passage could sum up "our" Emmaus community.

Are we building this house which we call North Indiana Emmaus/North Indiana Chrysalis community or is the Lord building it? Think about that a minute....., pray about it....., pray some more about it..

Now, what was the first feeling that came over you when you prayed about "our" community? What emotion was evoked in you as you thought about the Emmaus movement? Was it futility? Laboring in vain, or was it, WOW! Praise the Lord. He is GOOD!

Did you remember to include Christ in the "our" part? The Holy Spirit? God Almighty? Does your Emmaus community entail, "my" reunion group, "my" church, "my" friends and "my" family? Or is it more based on how can I serve, who can I support, where are those that are struggling within what I call the fourth day and every day, how can I build up others in leadership?.

Even in my question I narrow the scope for you and for God. The question to me should be, is God building leaders through us? Is He building up and bringing together unity and relationships within the Body of Christ? Is He tearing down the bonds of slavery to sin instead of tearing down each other? Not only those whom have gone on a walk, but those in our home churches, work environments and neighborhoods. Are you taking the model that was used on the walk into your daily life and continuing your relationship with Christ and the Holy Spirit honoring God? Bringing people together and sharing the joy that is being with the Holy Spirit, or are you bottling up and keeping it for yourself?

I do not have the answer to these questions since they are for you to reflect on. I do not know what is in your heart or reasons for why you do anything; but God does.

Now that I have shared a bit of my own internal struggle, as the Community Lay Director of NIEC and a prayerful servant, I want to ask you, Are you ready to serve? Are you ready to stand in the gap and help us build leaders for this small community, for the church and for the world?

Are you ready to be the hands and feet of Christ? Leaving behind self, pride and ego at the door, let's leave our "baggage" of 2007, 2006, 2005 or before on the altar and let God lead us into 2008. Reconcile with your brother and sister and let's move forward in prayer and servanthood.

Assignment number one for 2008: Pray for yourself and stay one with the Lord.

DeColores,

P d un #Z d ox v#
NIEC Community Lay Director.
